

STATIONERY VENDING MACHINE

VST-01S

The Vendstop stationery vending machine is a versatile solution that can serve a wide range of customers. It is particularly well-suited for universities, colleges, and schools, but it can also be used by bookstores and stationery brands looking to set up mobile stores in different locations.

In addition, large corporations with a sizable workforce can benefit from the convenience of the Vendstop machine, as it can help them meet their employees' day-to-day stationery needs while providing valuable usage data.
